

SEEING IN THE DARK:

Faith, Film and TIFF

Hosted by Urban Remixed (Trinity College, The Gateway, Church of the Redeemer) & Imago

What do we see in the dark?

What are we looking for when we go to the movies?

And how might faith and film illuminate each other?

This public event will seek to bring Christian faith into fruitful dialogue with the 2011 Toronto International Film Festival. We will also view the award-winning short film, "Kavi."

Wednesday, September 14th

7:30pm-9:30pm

Church of the Redeemer –
Avenue Road and Bloor

7:30-8:15 Panel Discussion and audience interaction with panellists:

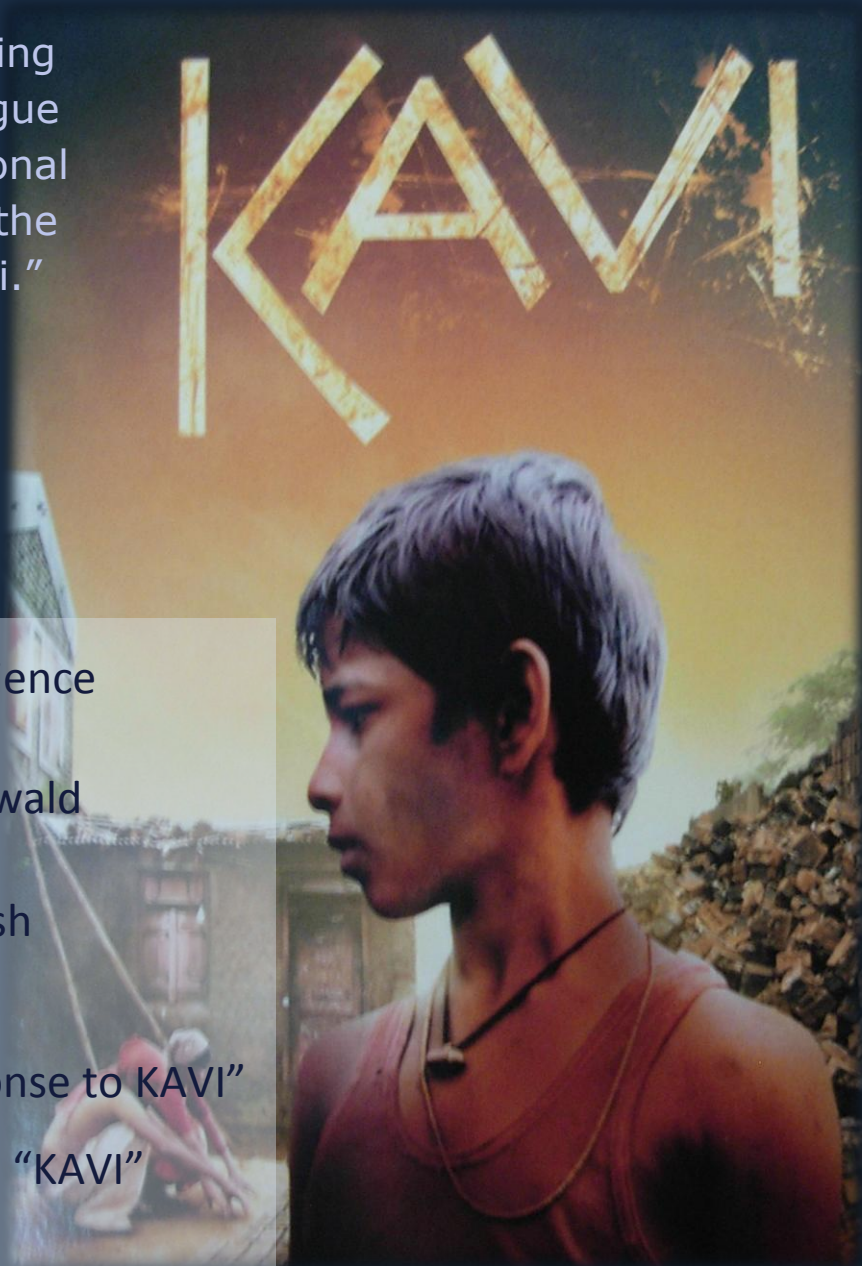

- Sherry Coman • Mark Bowald
 - John Franklin
- Facilitated by Brian Walsh

8:15 Special screening of "KAVI"

8:45-9:15 Panel and audience response to "KAVI"

9:15-9:30 Theological meditation to "KAVI"

Reception to Follow

KAVI is a narrative short film that won the Student Academy Award for Narrative in 2009, and more than 50 awards worldwide.